CASE No: 2:12-MJ-00441-PAL

STIPULATION TO CONTINUE PRELIMINARY HEARING DATE
(Third Request)

It is hereby stipulated and agreed, by and between DANIEL BOGDEN, United States Attorney, by J. Gregory Damm, and , Richard A. Wright, Esq., counsel for Ramon Desage, that the preliminary hearing of the above captioned matter, currently scheduled for December 27, 2012, be vacated and set to a date and time convenient to this Court on or after January 31, 2013.

This stipulation is entered into for the following reasons:

1. The parties met and conferred regarding this case and investigation. An attorney for the defendant, George P. Kelesis, Esq., presented certain information to the government and requested additional time in order to assemble further information to presente to the government.

2. The parties seek an opportunity to meet again and discuss the merits of the case prior to indictment. This meeting could result in the resolution of the matter.

3. George Kelesis, who has been lead counsel in discussions with the government, had expected to meet with government counsel prior to December 7, 2012; however, George Kelesis has serious cardiac medical issues which render him unavailable. George Kelesis is under strict bed rest orders and is scheduled to commence a battery of tests on December 5, 2012, including a nuclear stress test, etc.

4. Richard Wright was not and is not prepared to step in for George Kelesis.

5. The defendant is not in custody and requests this continuance.

6. The additional time requested herein is not sought for purposes of delay, but merely to allow the parties an opportunity to resolve this matter short of indictment. Resolving this matter short of indictment will promote judicial efficiency.

7. Additionally, denial of this request for continuance could result in a miscarriage of justice, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

8. This is the third request for a continuance filed herein.
